43. Save as provided in Articles 16 and 16C, if a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

- (a) A poll on a resolution may be demanded by:
 - (i) the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (ii) by at least 5 Voting Members having the right to vote at the meeting;

46. (a) Any objection to the qualification of any person voting at a General Meeting may only be raised at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and a vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

- (b) Any objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final.
47. A resolution in writing signed by all Voting Members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held.

- (i) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Secretary in writing; and
 - (ii) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- (b) The notice must be given by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed at least 72 hours (or a later time the chairman of the meeting determines) before the meeting is to take place (or a later time the chairman of the meeting determines).
- (c) A special resolution to be proposed at a General Meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- (i) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the meeting at which the special resolution is to be proposed; and
 - (ii) the amendment merely corrects a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the special resolution.
- (d) If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the vote on that resolution remains valid unless the High Court of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region orders otherwise.

56. A Voting Member who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of the meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Society by or on behalf of the Voting Member.
57. A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy notice is valid despite:
- (a) the previous death or mental incapacity of the Voting Member appointing the proxy; or
 - (b) the revocation of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment of the proxy is executed.
58. Article 57 does not apply if the notice in writing of the death, mental incapacity or revocation is received by the Society:
