

ASHK 3rd General Insurance Seminar

Friday, 19 October 2018, Hotel ICON

Bridging the Future: Innovation, Technology and Regulations to Drive Transformation

Technological advances, innovations in and around the insurance sector, and changing regulations are shaping the environment facing insurers and customers.

The Actuarial Society of Hong Kong (ASHK) is seeking to position actuaries front and centre in this new and exciting world. The ASHK would like to invite general insurance practitioners, actuaries, data scientists, entrepreneurs, dreamers and pioneers to its 3rd General Insurance Seminar in Hong Kong.

This one-day event aims to foster increased knowledge-sharing and interaction between members of the insurance community. The seminar's Organising Committee is seeking expressions of interest for speakers and panellists. Topics that fit the theme include (but are not limited to):

- Impact of innovations and technological developments in the insurance industry
- Emerging risks and issues affecting insurers
- Upcoming regulatory and accounting changes
- New techniques being used by actuaries

The table below outlines key deadlines for expressions of interest and submission of presentations. Please note that the ASHK's policy is to neither provide an honorarium, nor reimburse expenses incurred by authors/presenters.

Key Dates

Friday 6 July	Deadline for presenter expressions of interest
Friday 20 July	Organising Committee to confirm acceptance of presenters and notify all applicants
Friday 5 October	Submission of final presentation slides

If you would like to present at the seminar, please submit the following information (click here for synopsis template) to the Chairperson of the Organising Committee, Mr. Jack Jiang (info@actuaries.org.hk):

- A synopsis of your presentation
- Your biography (150 words or less) and an accompanying photo

All submissions must be in English. Further, authors are required to provide an electronic copy of their presentation slides by e-mail. Presentations will be published on the ASHK website following the seminar. By submitting presentation slides to the organising committee of the ASHK, the authors will be deemed to have given permission to publish. Company logos are not allowed.

We look forward to your attendance.

Yours sincerely
