ASHK By-Law: Continuing Professional Development ("CPD") (effective 2016)

1. All non-retired¹ Fellow and Associate members of the ASHK are subject to the CPD Requirement effective with calendar year 2012. Members who have recently attained their ASHK Fellowship or Associateship status are not required to begin earning CPD credits until the calendar year following the year of attainment of Fellowship or Associateship status.
2. The CPD Requirement is recorded on a calendar-year basis.
3. Fellow members with a statutory role in Hong Kong (e.g. Appointed Actuary, Pensions Actuary, General Insurance Reserve signing Actuary) must complete a minimum of 30 hours² of professional development work each calendar year, split into the following two categories:
 - a. At least 20 hours related to the technical learning in the member's main practice area of which at least 10 hours should be gained at external events and at least 6 of the 20 hours must be Hong Kong specific; and
 - b. At least 2 hours of the 30 hours should be in the area of professionalism³.
4. Fellow members without a statutory role in Hong Kong and Associate members must complete a minimum of 20 hours² of professional development work each calendar year, split into the following two categories:
 - a. At least 15 hours related to the member's main practice area; and
 - b. At least 1 hour of the 20 hours should be in the area of professionalism³.
5. (i) In the case where an event or activity overlaps with more than one of the above categories, members are allowed to determine the desired allocation of CPD hours in each category while adhering to the minimum and maximum standards. No double counting of CPD hours is allowed.
(ii) CPD credits are Hong Kong specific if they comprise activities related to the actuarial industry of Hong Kong. Examples include attending seminars that are on actuarial topics focused on Hong Kong and self-learning of any updates on Hong Kong insurance regulation.
(iii) CPD credits are related to the member's main practice area if they broaden or deepen the member's knowledge of work which is required for his or her current role, or in a new area in which the member contemplates practicing in the future.
6. Members must keep a record of their CPD activities throughout the year. Members will be asked to certify annually at the time of their membership renewal that they are in compliance with the CPD requirements. The ASHK may conduct annual audits on a random basis to monitor compliance.
7. Any member who fails to comply with the CPD requirement by the end of the calendar year has three months to make up the shortfall of CPD hours. Non-compliance may result in counseling and disciplinary actions including reporting of non-compliance to the member's actuarial examining body as appropriate.

Personal Information Collection Statement

1. The ASHK will use members' personal data for administration and management purposes including, but not limited to, membership admission, registration maintenance, accreditation of qualifications, enforcement of members' compliance with the Articles of Association and By-Laws (e.g. Continuing Professional Development) as well as any other Rules and Regulations of the ASHK for the time being in force and related matters, nomination for appointments in ASHK's Council/Committee(s)/Taskforce(s), compilation of ASHK membership directory/search and statistics, general mailing and communication activities, research and development, promotion of the profession and the ASHK, provision of membership services and activities; and handling of enquiries, feedback, complaints or disciplinary action. The ASHK will only retain personal data collected for such period as may be necessary for the carrying out of the above purposes and destroy any documents containing personal data it holds in accordance with its internal policy and applicable laws.
2. It is obligatory for members to supply the ASHK with the data in this form except as otherwise specified and if a member fails to supply such data the ASHK will not be able to process the member's form / application.
3. The ASHK may exchange information with any of the International Actuarial Association ("IAA") full member associations including the IAA relating to the ASHK's membership. This includes, but is not limited to, the provision to any disciplinary investigations team of ASHK of information on or relating to any investigation, finding, decision and determination undertaken or issued by a member's primary professional regulator in relation to the member's conduct, for the purpose of possible consideration under the ASHK's disciplinary scheme.
4. ASHK members may request at reasonable intervals to be informed of and have access to their own data held and have such data corrected or erased where appropriate. The ASHK's privacy policy is available on its website: www.actuaries.org.hk. ASHK members can write to info@actuaries.org.hk for any queries on the ASHK's privacy policy.
5. Direct Marketing
The ASHK intends to use members' personal data including name, email address and correspondence address to inform members' of the ASHK's membership services and activities (e.g. actuarial job advertisements, newsletters, conference/evening talk/luncheon and research organised or supported by the ASHK or other organisations).

ASHK members may opt out from receiving such ASHK communications at any time by accessing the Login Area on the ASHK website (Membership > Member Zone > Member Login > Personal Information > Preference) or by sending an email to the ASHK Office at info@actuaries.org.hk.

² An "hour" is defined as 60 minutes for purposes of the CPD requirement.

³ Activities such as attending a Professionalism Course offered by a professional body and self-learning about professionalism can be counted towards meeting this CPD requirement.
