

2023 ASHK

ACTUARIAL INNOVATION CONFERENCE

SEPTEMBER 2023 | HONG KONG

CALL FOR PAPERS

CALL FOR PAPER

We are excited to announce the ASHK Actuarial Innovation Conference 2023, to be held in-person in Hong Kong for the first time. After three successful years of virtual conferences, we cordially invite actuaries and professionals from related fields to come together and exchange ideas under the theme of "Actuaries of the Future: Navigating Disruption with Innovation."

This one-day event promises to delve into the most pressing topics and cutting-edge innovations shaping the actuarial profession. Our Organising Committee is currently seeking dynamic speakers and insightful panellists to contribute to the conference. Topics can include (but not limited to) the following innovations:

1. Solutions for New and Emerging Risks (e.g. cyber security, data privacy, climate change)
2. The Role of Actuaries in ESG and Sustainability
3. The Human Side of Actuarial Innovation
4. Insurtech Solutions and Impact on the Actuarial Profession
5. Applications of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning
6. Examples and Challenges of AI Ethics and Regulations
7. Data Science for Actuaries (including new data sources and data ethics)
8. Other innovations relevant for the actuarial profession

The below outlines key deadlines for expressions of interest and submission of presentations.

21 Jun	Deadline for submitting the Expressions of Interest form
Early-July	Organising Committee to confirm accepted presenters and notify all applicants
25 Aug	Submission of final presentation slides
Early-Sep	Briefing with presenters
(Tentative) 21 Sep	Present the paper at the conference in Hong Kong

If you are interested in presenting at the conference, please submit the Expression of Interest Form below to info@actuaries.org.hk on or before 21 June 2023. Please also feel free to circulate the call for paper with anyone who may be interested.

We look forward to your contribution.

Yours sincerely
