IMPORTANT NOTES

- 1 Members in good standing who become involuntarily unemployed and 1) are seeking full-time employment OR 2) health reason may be entitled to apply for a deferral of subscription fees at the time the subscription fee become payable (on 1 October). Application for deferral or waiver of subscription fee is subject to the approval of the ASHK Council. For more details please go to <https://www.actuaries.org.hk/pages/13/Current%20Subscription> .
- 2 The deferral will terminate if the members' circumstances change (e.g. become employed) during the membership year at which time the pro-rata balance of the current year's subscription due is payable. Members will be responsible for informing the ASHK immediately of any change in circumstances which may affect their entitlement to the deferred subscription fee.
- 3 The deferred subscription fees may be waived at membership year's end upon submission of a signed statement that members remained unemployed for the entire year.
- 4 A subscription fee waiver is to be granted for a maximum of 2 consecutive years. Request for a continuation of subscription fee waiver must be submitted annually and the circumstances reaffirmed.
