Deferral and Waiver of Subscription Fee – Declaration

ASHK members in good standing who become involuntarily unemployed and are seeking full-time employment may be entitled to apply for a deferral of subscription fees at the time the subscription fee become payable (on 1 October).

The deferral will terminate if the members become employed during the membership year at which time the pro-rata balance of the current year's subscription dues are payable. Members will be responsible for informing the ASHK of the change in employment status.

The deferred subscription fees may be waived at membership year's end upon submission of this signed declaration that they remained unemployed for the entire year. A subscription fee waiver may be granted for a maximum of 2 consecutive years. Requests for a continuation of subscription fee waiver must be submitted annually and the circumstances reaffirmed.

1 I ..... (Member ID ..... ) solemnly and sincerely declare that:
